-- Using the UN and other international fora to continue to expose Soviet CBW activities

-- Seeking to convene a meeting of States Parties to the BWC to strengthen verification and compliance mechanisms and to maintain pressure on the Soviets

-- Mounting and maintaining a public affairs campaign in support of the above measures

-- Considering, after assessing the results of the above steps, the possibility of taking the issue to the UN Security Council (per the BWC) or withdrawing from the BWC.

-- US/Soviet bilateral negotiations be allowed to lapse informally and that the US should support multilateral negotiations in the CD.

-- A US negotiating position be developed prior to opening of the CD session scheduled for early next February. The US position on the type of agreement to be negotiated, i.e., comprehensive ban vs more limited prohibitions, would be based on further analysis by the BCW IG to determine the impact of an agreement on US capabilities, including verification.
